Part I, Line 2	Young Harris College develops financial aid awards based upon a combination of factors, including the student's demonstrated financial need as determined by the FAFSA or other family financial indicator as accepted by the College, high school GPA, and SAT or ACT scores. Aid is to be awarded in the manner which best serves the greatest number of students and which is in keeping with the intent of the various campus programs. All institutional financial aid awards are made in accordance with the student's ability to maintain satisfactory academic progress. The Financial Aid Department monitors the students' satisfactory academic progress annually for institutional aid to determine continued eligibility. Standards are set on qualitative and quantitative progress.
