Line 28) Our county promotes the betterment of agriculture by providing scholarships to high school students who pursue a career in an agricultural related field.

Line 29) Local High School students participated in our Annual Speech Contest. This contest gives students an opportunity to learn how to research and write on current issues related to agriculture. Students also get the chance to develop public speaking skills which are essential both in higher learning institutions and the work force environment.

Line 30) We participated in the Tri-County Ag Ventures program which allows students to learn about local agriculture through hands on activities.
