Disclosures shall be in writing and directed to the chair of the board and/or the President. Information disclosed shall be held in confidence except where, in the judgment of these persons, the best interest of the organization requires further disclosure. All board members and leadership staff are requested to list on this form those substantive relationships that he or she maintains (or members of their family maintain) with organizations that do business with CMAF or otherwise could be construed to potentially affect his or her unbiased, decision-making authority or responsibility. In the event there is uncertainty as to the appropriateness of listing a particular relationship, the chair of the board of directors and/or president should be consulted. They in turn may elect to consult legal counsel, the executive committee, or the board of directors in executive session. A board member or leadership staff who has declared or has been found to have a conflict-of-interest in any proposed transaction or other matter will not participate in any discussion or debate regarding that transaction. The board of directors may request clarifying information from that person or persons involved but he or she may not vote on the matter in question and may not present at the time of the vote. With respect to restraint on participation, the president or the chair shall take action as is necessary to assure that the transaction is completed in the best interest of CMAF without the substantive involvement of the person who has the possible conflict of interest.
