Page 2, Part III - Line 31, Other Program ServicesDescription

28) We sponsored a 'Farm to table event, which highlighted and promoted the efforts of local farmers in Flagler County. 'Farm to table is a growing trend that refers to the comsumption of locally-grown food or food that travels the shortest distance from the farm to the table. Purchasing locally-grown fresh produce is an opportunity for community residents to interact with their local farmers and support their local economy. Here in Florida, it's easy to support the 'Farm to table' movement.

29) Water policy is important to agriculture in Flagler County. Members serve on county water planning units and advocate for farmers and ranchers for water and supply and drainage issues and water quality.

30) Flagler County Farm Bureau had the opportunity to participate in an event sponsored by the Young Professional Group of Flagler County. The event was held to bring awareness and appreciation of where our food comes from. Proceeds of the event went to support the Youth Leadership Flagler and Flagler Count 4-H and FFA groups. Local farmers attended and supplied products for the event. This event gave us a forum to talk to the community about who Farm Bureau is and about our mission and purpose.
