licensed vocational nurses in cooperation with Temple College and Central Texas College in Killeen, Texas A Master's of Science in Nursing degree program is offered through Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi In total, more than 1,000 nursing students rotate through SW Temple annually BSWH also hosts allied health-training programs in its own name and in affiliation with other academic institutions, taught by nationally recognized physicians and professionals. These training programs and seminars are open to all medical professionals, as well as internal staff. During the fiscal year ended June 30, 2017, approximately 19.333 physicians and 8.847 medical professionals attended continuing medical education programs hosted by BSWH

See Schedule OOne of the cornerstones of SW Temple's mission is providing quality patient care with a focus on research activities. Efficiencies are gained through innovation. The focus of much of the research is to find innovative & cost-effective ways to treat patients, while increasing patient safety, improving quality and focusing on better outcomes. SW Temple has the following research departments, centers and institutes, cancer research institute, cardiovascular research, center for applied health research, center of cell death and differentiation, center for bone, joint and spine research, clinical simulation research, digestive disease research center, ophthalmic research, neuroscience research, podiatric research, division of research, family medicine, and ob/gyn research The Cancer Research Institute has been created to partner research and clinical care. The mission of the Cancer Research Institute is to find effective cancer therapies quickly and cost-effectively. The Vasicek Cancer Treatment Center, a part of the Scott & White Cancer Institute, is a state-of-the-art facility that offers highly-specialized and coordinated care in one location. Patients and their families have one-stop access to cancer diagnosis and treatment, backed by research and education CVRI is a joint effort of the Texas A&M Health Science Center, BSWH and Central Texas Veteran's Health Care System This unique program pairs the world-class research of molecular biologists with clinical applications for the treatment of people suffering from cardiovascular disease or stroke. By discovering better strategies for prevention and intervention of these conditions, the work of the Institute will benefit patients and the entire community To facilitate such research BSWH has focused significant efforts on outcomes based research. SW Temple has established the Center for Applied Health Research (CAHR) This center focuses on diverse research areas, and brings together expertise in many areas such as health services research, community based health research, patient centered safety and patient activation research, along with research mentoring and the academic development of clinicians. The center brings together collaborators from SW Temple, Texas A&M Health Science Center and the Central Texas Veteran's Health Care System (CTVHCS) Within the CAHR, the Patient Engagement and Safety Research Program centers on a team perspective in patient care. This program partners patients, family members, clinicians and other community and healthcare providers to create the best possible healthcare outcomes. The research is based on clinical trials, clinical simulation models, program evaluations, patient education and common intervention strategies. The Health Outcomes Core conducts health services research focusing on severe mental illnesses and the management of care for patients with complex medical and psychiatric comorbidities. This group works jointly with SW Temple, the CTVHCS, Darnall Army Medical Center at the U.S. Army's Fort Hood, and the Center of Excellence for Research on Returning War Veterans located in Waco, Texas Clinical Simulation Research is another area directly impacting patients' healthcare quality and safety. The Clinical Simulation Center was created, in collaboration with Temple College, to allow healthcare students and providers to design and test new processes and procedures prior to performing them on patients. The Clinical Simulation Center is used by medical and nursing students, residents, fellows, nurses and other healthcare providers. Simulation work enhances communication skills and performance of healthcare providers, preparing them for the realities of patient care The goal and objective, of the Digestive Disease Research Center (DDRC), is to discover and share cutting edge knowledge about the digestive system and the diseases that affect millions in the United States The SW Temple research team consists of basic scientists and physicians from a wide variety of backgrounds with varying interests and disciplines. These combined investigators support the practice of "bench to bedside" research to benefit and contribute to human health. Along with seasoned investigators, the DDRC also believes in training of future scientists and provides an excellent learning environment for the training of undergraduates, medical students, graduate students, postdoctoral fellows and residents BSWH has committed significant resources to establish a one-of-a-kind Ophthalmic Vascular Research Program (OVRP) This is a joint effort between the Division of Ophthalmology at SW Temple, the Department of Systems Biology and Translational Medicine, and Cardiovascular Research Institute at the Texas A&M Health Science Center. New theories developed regarding the pathogenesis of various eye diseases as well as potential new theories proposed and tested in the basic science laboratory, if appropriate and promising, can be taken into the clinical setting to benefit patient care The Neuroscience Institute (NSI) at SW Temple and Texas A&M Health Science Center College of Medicine conducts state-of-the-art translational research, with scientific interests including drug and device trials in humans. The NSI is home to an invasive human brain chemistry and electrophysiology lab, neuroinflammation, neurogenesis, a neuromodulation lab, which includes a frameless stereotactic image-quided transcranial magnetic stimulator (TMS), an autonomic psychophysiology lab and a functional neuroimaging (fMRI) lab. One of the main scientific objectives of the NSI is the multimodal analysis of human brain function in both healthy and diseased populations. Research within the NSI is highly collaborative and expanding, with an internationally recognized team of basic and clinical researchers in the Departments of Neurosurgery, Neurology, Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences and Radiology The podiatric research team has 12 studies in progress. They have received two National Institute of Health (NIH) grants to fund two fiveyear studies. The total contact cast (TCC) study focuses on foot wounds, compliance and cost of care and complications. Another study is a collaborative effort with a research team from the U K, which will study the recurrence and prevention of foot ulcers. The podiatric research team also has studies sponsored by the American Diabetic Association (ADA) and American Podiatric Medical Association (APMA) and are looking into the occurrence of ulcers in diabetic patients that are currently undergoing dialysis and how foot care affects diabetic foot complications. They are also looking into new therapies to deal with treatment of foot infections and open amputations. The Division of Research, Family Medicine (DORFAM) has current research projects focusing on bicycle related traumatic brain injuries, weight and contents of backpacks carried by school children, concussions among high school football players and miscommunication as a cause of medication errors in elderly ambulatory patients SW Temple has developed a virtual data warehouse which promotes Comparative Effectiveness Research This virtual warehouse allows SW Temple to share clinical and research data with other research and healthcare organizations. By partnering with other institutes, the data necessary for effective research is quickly and readily available, resulting in larger and more comprehensive data pools and increasing the cost-effectiveness of research BSWH employs many physicians, scientists and technicians devoted to various aspects of research programs During the fiscal year ending June 30, 2017, there were approximately 555 active research projects, of which approximately 32% are self-funded by SW Temple contractual allowance, payments received and recoveries of bad debt previously written off. The Organization has entered zero on Schedule H, Part III, Line 3, however, based on prior experience and certain demographics and other information obtained during admission, the organization believes a portion of the bad debt expenses (estimated to range from 1-5%) would be attributable to patients that would otherwise qualify for charity care. Despite all of the effort and ways the organization educates patients about qualifying for its charity care program as demonstrated in Part VI, question 3 below, many uninsured patients either refuse or fail to complete a charity care application or provide sufficient information at the time of admission, during their stay or after being discharged to qualify for assistance under the organization's charity care policy.

Form and Line Reference	Explanation
Part III, Line 8	The amount reported on Part III, Section B, line 7 was calculated in accordance with the Schedule H instructions utilizing the organization's allowable cost reported in the Medicare cost report based on a cost to charge ratio. However, the allowable costs in the Medicare cost report do not reflect the actual cost of providing care to patients since the Medicare cost report excludes many direct patient care costs that are essential to providing quality care to these patients. For example, certain coverage fees to physicians, cost of Medicare C and D, and other similar direct patient care expenses are specifically excluded as allowable cost in the cost reports. The organization believes that all of the shortfall should be considered as a community benefit for the following reasons. First, the IRS Community Benefit Standard includes the provision of care to the elderly and Medicare patients. IRS Revenue Ruling 69-545 provides, in part, that hospitals serving patients with governmental health benefits, including for example Medicare, is an indication that the hospital operates for the promotion of health in the community. Second, the organization provides care to Medicare patients regardless of this shortfall, i.e., loss, and thereby relieves the state and federal government of the burden of paying the full cost for the care of Medicare beneficiaries. Medicare does not provide sufficient reimbursement to cover the entire cost of providing care to these patients causing the organization to use other surplus funds to cover the shortfall. It is expected that reimbursement under the Medicare program will continue to decline and therefore may further limit access to care due to the anticipated reduction of participating Medicare providers in the community. As a result, the care for these patients will likely increase at, and rest on the shoulders of, nonprofit hospitals or county hospital districts. Third, many of the Medicare participants have low fixed incomes and therefore would qualify for charity care or other means tested government programs absent being enrolled in the Medicare program Fourth, Texas nonprofit hospitals must provide a minimum level of community benefit in order to obtain exemption from state and local taxes According to the current Texas Health and Safety Code, the unreimbursed cost of Medicare is considered to be a community benefit in determining these state statutory requirements as it helps relieve a governmental burden of providing this care that would otherwise be provided through the county hospital system in Texas

Part I, Line 3	Process for determining compensation. The organization, a controlled affiliate of BSW Holdings, recognizes that those chosen to lead the organization are vital to its ongoing success and growth. Thus, it must attract, retain and engage the highest quality officers and key employees to lead the organization and help the organization maintain its national reputation for achieving high targets for medical quality, patient safety, and patient satisfaction. A significant portion of the organization's officers and key employees' total compensation is based on significant performance achievements. This strategy, known as the Annual Incentive Plan, places a greater emphasis on the importance of the organization achieving targeted improvements in the areas of people, quality, patient satisfaction and financial stewardship, annually. Total executive compensation is part of an integrated talent management strategy developed by the BSW Holdings' Board of Trustees and its Compensation and Governance Committee (C&G Committee) to attract, motivate, and retain the best leadership resources for the organization. Executive compensation is determined pursuant to guidelines outlined in the intermediate sanction rules under IRC Section 4958 including taking steps to meet the rebuttable presumption standard of reasonableness under Treasury Regulation 53.4958-6, as summarized below. When making compensation decisions, the organization compares itself to similar-sized, and structured businesses including other integrated health care service systems and other similar-sized organizations, both locally and nationally. The BSW Holdings' Board of Trustees and C&G Committee, on behalf of the organization, work directly with an independent compensation expert(s) to identify reasonable and competitive market rates as well as provide an annual review of the total compensation of the organization's top management officials and key employees. The C&G Committee is made up of members of the BSW Holdings' Board of Trustees, who are independent, com the executive compensation program to assure designs remain consistent with the business needs, market practices, and compensation philosophy As part of the decision making process, the C&G Committee will often meet in executive session to discuss and review recommendations made by the independent compensation expert(s) During the executive session no officer or key employee whose compensation is being reviewed is present during these discussions. All decisions are contemporaneously documented in the C&G Committee minutes which are timely reviewed and approved by the C&G Committee

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	Process for determining compensation. The organization, a controlled affiliate of BSW Hold ings, recognizes that those chosen to lead the organization are vital to its ongoing success and growth. Thus, it must attract, retain and engage the highest quality officers and key employees to lead the organization and help the organization maintain its national reputation for achieving high targets for medical quality, patient safety, and patient satisfaction. A significant portion of the organization's officers and key employees' total compensation is based on significant performance achievements. This strategy places a greater emphasis on the importance of the organization achieving targeted improvements in the areas of people, quality, patient satisfaction and financial stewardship, annually. Total execultive compensation is part of an integrated talent management strategy developed by the BSW Holdings' Board of Trustees and its Compensation and Governance Committee (C&G Committee) to attract, motivate, and retain the best leadership resources for the organization.
