Part III, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 1a	Travel for companions-The organization reimburses eligible employees and board members certain reasonable travel expenses associated with spousal travel where the spouse's presence is important to the event. These events may include, for example, board meetings, business meetings, and award ceremonies approved by the BSW Holdings' CEO, COO or CFO. All spousal travel reimbursements are treated as taxable compensation. One person listed in the Form 990, Part VII, Section A, received this benefit during the tax year. Tax indemnification and gross-up payments-The organization provides tax indemnification where the BSW Holdings' CEO, COO or CFO determines there is justification to reimburse an individual for the tax impact on certain taxable, non-cash benefits provided to them. All tax indemnification payments provided are treated as taxable compensation. Two of the persons listed in the Form 990, Part VII, Section A, received this benefit during the tax year.

Part I, Line 3	Process for determining compensation The organization, a controlled affiliate of BSW Holdings, recognizes that those chosen to lead the organization are vital to its ongoing success and growth Thus, it must attract, retain and engage the highest quality officers and key employees to lead the organization and help the organization maintain its national reputation for achieving high targets for medical quality, patient safety, and patient satisfaction A significant portion of the organization's officers and key employees' total compensation is based on significant performance achievements This strategy places a greater emphasis on the importance of the organization achieving targeted improvements in the areas of people, quality, patient satisfaction and financial stewardship, annually Total executive compensation is part of an integrated talent management strategy developed by the BSW Holdings' Board of Trustees and its Compensation and Governance Committee (C&amp;G Committee) to attract, motivate, and retain the best leadership resources for the organization Executive compensation is determined pursuant to guidelines outlined in the intermediate sanction rules under IRC Section 4958 including taking steps to meet the rebuttable presumption standard of reasonableness under Treasury Regulation 53.4958-6, as summarized below When making compensation decisions, the organization compares itself to similar-sized, and structured businesses including other integrated health care service systems and other similar-sized organizations, both locally and nationally The BSW Holdings' Board of Trustees and C&amp;G Committee, on behalf of the organization, works directly with an independent compensation expert(s) to identify reasonable and competitive market rates as well as provide an annual review of the total compensation of the system's top management officials and key employees The C&amp;G Committee is made up of members of the BSW Holdings' Board of Trustees, who are independent, community volunteers Guided by the information provided by the independent compensation expert(s), the C&amp;G Committee approves and recommends to the BSW Holdings' Board of Trustees salary increases, earned incentives, and/or benefit offerings for the organization's President, other officers and/or key employees to be comparable to similar organizations for similar services and/or positions Furthermore, the C&amp;G Committee is charged with the responsibility of reviewing annually the major elements of the executive compensation program to assure designs remain consistent with the business needs, market practices, and compensation philosophy As part of the decision making process, the C&amp;G Committee will often meet in executive session to discuss and review recommendations made by the independent compensation expert(s) During the executive session no officer or key employee whose compensation is being reviewed is present during these discussions All decisions are contemporaneously documented in the C&amp;G Committee minutes which are timely reviewed and approved by the C&amp;G Committee

Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 4b	In order to recruit and retain key talent, BSW Holdings and certain tax exempt affiliates (BSWH) offers a supplemental non-qualified retirement plan to eligible employees. The plan provides an annual benefit (based on a percentage of compensation) to the employee that is paid to the employee on a future date upon vesting in the plan. The following individual(s) participated in and/or received payments (noted in parenthesis) from BSWH's supplemental non-qualified retirement plan during the tax year: Amy Martin and Cindy Schamp. Also, select certain officers, as designated by BSW Holdings' governing body, are eligible to participate in a Long Term Incentive Plan that is designed to recognize the key senior leaders value and contribution to BSWH as well as align their compensation to the long term strategy of BSWH. Performance targets are based upon a percentage of the participant's base salary and are developed by independent third party expert(s) using market competitive data withing the guides of reasonableness. The plan is based on BSWH's three-year performance against its peers, determined based on peer rankings or percentile rankings in quality, patient satisfaction and financial performance. At the end of three years, awards are determined by BSW Holdings' governing body for participants. Payouts are partially made in cash and the remainder vests over an additional two year period. The following individual participated in and/or received payments (noted in parenthesis) from this plan during the tax year: Cindy Schamp ($156,432).
