Covenant House Texas also provided the following comprehensive services to homeless, runaway, and "throwaway" youth under the age of 21. Outreach-The Outreach program is an effort to reach youths who are on the streets for various reasons. Outreach vans cruise the city streets day and night searching for these youths and providing them with food, a trained counselor, and referrals to shelters and health and other services, if needed. Youths are also referred to the Organization's Community Service Center (CSC), there they receive ongoing counseling and other services. Community Service Center (CSC)-The CSC program provides comprehensive services to youths in the residential programs and to other youths in the community who need support in order to complete their educations, obtain employment, and maintain themselves in stable living situations. The Public Education-The Public Education program informs and educates the public on how to identify potential "runaway and "throwaway" adolescents, the public and private resources available to help such adolescents before they leave home and the public support services available to these families to improve the home environment.

| Part I, Line 2   | Covenant house Texas provides non-cash assistance in the form of medical, substance abuse, vocational education, job training, and etc. As such, there is no requirement to monitor the use of these non-cash items. Covenant House Texas reviews all grant related expenditures on a monthly basis, with the majority of the grant funds are on a reimbursement basis. Consequently all expenditures must be reviewed to insure that they comply with grant provisions prior to submitting the reimbursement request. In addition, all expenditures/ assistances are documented in each resident's case file. |
