Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Early Intervention provides developmental supports and services to children birth through three years of age, who have special developmental needs. TRE provides services such as speech therapy and physical or occupational therapy. Services are provided at no cost to families. In 2017, TRE served approximately 1,908 infants and toddlers in EI. 30% of the children in this program will "graduate and will not need special supports for the rest of their lives."

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Supported Living Services is a program for adults with developmental disabilities that enable a person to remain in control of his or her own living arrangements and be included in their community. The participant chooses where they live, work, and play, who supports them and what type of supports they need. Number of consumers served was 788.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Community Coordination, or case management as it is commonly called, is an individually centered, family and community-focused service in which programs and resources are coordinated to enhance people's lives and build independence. Community Coordinators navigate an array of supports that are available for individuals, how to become eligible, and how to request and access services. The goal of Community Coordination is to assure that necessary services are provided effectively and efficiently through establishing meaningful relationships with each individual, their family, and the community in which they live, work, and play. Number of consumers served was 1,824.

Form 990, Part III - 4 Program Service Accomplishments (See the Instructions)

(Code) (Expenses $ 1,633,533 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 1,612,008)

Children's Extensive Support is for children who have extensive behavioral and/or medical conditions and require 20-24 hours of support a day. This program assists families paying for additional therapies, equipment, home modifications, household services and more. Number of consumers served was 348.

(Code) (Expenses $ 915,080 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 909,236)

Family Support is for individuals with a developmental disability who are over age three and live with parents or relatives. Family Support services are offered to maintain a successful family environment by promoting and connecting them with their community. A Family Support Coordinator directly assists in identifying and locating resources that meet the needs of each family. Number of consumers served was 432.

Form 990, Part III - 4 Program Service Accomplishments (See the Instructions)

(Code) (Expenses $ 887,141 including grants of $) (Revenue $ 1,239,710)

Comprehensive Services are designed for adults with developmental disabilities who need more intensive supervision and assistance in their daily lives. People in this program live on their own, in a host home with a family or individual who cares for the person in their home, or a group home run by a service agency. Comprehensive Services are designed to help each person achieve the goals they set for themselves. Number of consumers served was 689.

Part X, Line 2	The Center is operated as a nonprofit organization exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Center recognizes tax liabilities when, despite the Center's belief that its tax return positions are supportable, the Center believes that certain positions may not be fully sustained upon review by tax authorities. Benefits from tax positions are measured at the largest amount of benefit that is greater than fifty percent likely of being realized upon settlement. The Center has concluded there is no tax liability or benefit required to be recorded as of June 30, 2017.
