Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

DPS Foundation grants supported DPS' relentless pursuit of student achievement and impacted several key areas of focus including school innovation, leadership development, preparing students for college and career, literacy programs, grants to classrooms and schools, science, technology, engineering and math (STEM) education, health and wellness and afterschool programs. DPS Foundation grants directly serve DPS' more than 92,000 students, approximately 200 schools, as well as educators and school leaders. See continuation on Schedule O. DPS Foundation partnered with foundations, corporations, parents, educators, alumni and other members of the community to support programs and schools district-wide. Supported by our ever-increasing donor base, DPS Foundation granted approximately $8 million to DPS for priority programs and critical needs in 2016-17. Thanks to our donors' generosity, DPS is making strides for our students. DPS students are achieving among the highest academic growth in Colorado and the second-highest academic growth among the 300 largest school districts in the nation. A testament to the community's confidence in the direction and leadership of our public school system, DPS is also among the fastest growing urban school districts in America. Gifts to DPS Foundation have tangible and lasting impact on our students, both in and outside of the classroom. When our students thrive, our communities thrive.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	Before filing the Form 990, a copy of the entire Form 990 is included in the board packet sent to each board member. A detailed review of the Form 990 is performed by the audit committee and board treasurer. After their review, they recommend approval by the entire board of directors. Approval of Form 990 is documented in the board meeting minutes.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Annually all board of directors and all employees are obligated to complete and sign a conflict of interest form disclosing any and all potential conflicts of interest. All potential conflicts of interest listed are reviewed by the President/CEO and Board Chair to determine appropriate action necessary to mitigate any potential conflict. Appropriate action may involve disallowing the person to conduct transactions, prohibiting the person from participation in the board's deliberations and abstaining from voting on those matters and/or ceasing to conduct business with an individual or organization. The board of directors is notified of all potential conflicts of interest as well as any action taken to mitigate the potential conflict.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The executive committee of the board of directors determines compensation for the President/CEO. The executive committee considers the skill set and past performance of the President/CEO, reviews compensation at other similarly-sized not-for-profit organizations, consults with an executive coach/consultant about trends and reviews the current economy to determine compensation. Compensation is reviewed annually for the President/CEO. Compensation for all other employees is determined by the skill set of the employee, past performance and is based on current market practices for similar duties performed by individuals in organizations of similar size. Compensation is directly approved by the President/CEO and ultimately approved by the board as part of its approval of the annual budget.
