Facilitated access to outpatient mental health therapy in behalf of more than 350 child victims and directly impacted, non-offending family members. These grants were paid directly to community mental health treatment providers for LMI families that would otherwise not receive critical needed therapy for the child abuse trauma that they have suffered. Additionally, this amount was significantly leveraged to serve as many children and families as possible through the partial donation by these therapists of their services at 50% of the normal fee for services. ($91,934.79 for therapy/counseling fees)

Additionally, grants totaling $907.00 were paid as direct client services to professional interpreters for those with hearing disabilities to facilitate access to therapy for children and families needing this service

4b (Code:) (Expenses $ 23452.06 including grants of $ 23357.06) (Revenue $)

The CJC facility is provided for full use of Utah County Government's Children's Justice Center Program, by lease from the Friends of Utah County Children's Justice Center organization, as part of our charitable mission. (A $1.00 lease fee is paid by Utah County Government annually to validate the lease contract so that full liability coverage for the CJC facility and staff (Utah County employees) is provided under Utah County Government.) The depreciation expense for this facility is $20,960.00 per year

Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2; Part III, column (b); and any other additional information.

Part II The Friends of Utah County Children's Justice Center provides the community a donated child-friendly facility for the Utah County Children's Justice Center program to serve alleged victims of child abuse and child witnesses of violent crime. It is leased to Utah County Government for $1 per year (essentially without charge for this 10,000 sq ft facility). The actual value of this space is estimated to be about $60,000 per year if rented. Cash grants to Utah County Government for the Utah County Children's Justice Center Program were made to cover professional training, supplies and other program service costs.

Part III Grants were made in behalf of needy individual child abuse victims to allow access to critically needed age-appropriate therapy services provided by a number of licensed mental health treatment providers in our community. Payment was made directly to the therapists (@50%) to pay for actually billed direct services to victims of child abuse who did not have other or adequate means to be able to access appropriate therapy for child abuse trauma.

Form 990, Part III: The purpose of the Friends of Utah County Children's Justice Center is to foster and support the Utah County Children's Justice Center Program (CJC) through raising private and public funds in behalf of child abuse victims in our community. The purpose of the CJC Program is to reduce trauma for victims of child abuse and child witnesses of violent crimes, particularly sexual and physical abuse, by coordinating and facilitating the criminal justice system and child protective system responses to these victims through a multidisciplinary team intervention in a safe, non-threatening, child-friendly facility known as the Utah County Children's Justice Center. This home-like facility and much needed major addition to this facility, are held in trust for the community by the Friends of Utah County Children's Justice Center non-profit, charitable organization. Additionally, we provide funding to the CJC Program, which functions under Utah County Government, as needed. This support can include training for MDT professionals and medical services. We also provide significant funding each year for age-appropriate child abuse victim treatment for abused children and their impacted non-offending family members to promote healing and restoration to productive lives. Public awareness and education are provided to involve the community in being part of the solution to child abuse issues, as a part of our charitable purpose. While we continue to support the healing programs of the Utah County Children's Justice Center, we also provide funding to periodically refurbish, maintain, and refurbish the CJC facility, as needed. This may include replacing and upgrading essential equipment, as part of our charitable purpose. We also receive significant non-cash contributions that provide much needed clothing, toys, books, etc. for very needy child clients and families during this time of crisis in their lives. We strive to promote hope and healing in the young lives of these children. The Friends of Utah County Children's Justice Center organization is a community-based, dedicated volunteer organization.

Form 990, Part VI, Section C, Line 19: The Friends of Utah County Children's Justice Center makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements available to be reviewed by the public, upon request.
