Return Reference	Explanation
Grantmaker's Description of How Grants are Used	The Educational Grants Committee interviews candidates, determines eligibility and awards scholarship grants based on established criteria. Guidelines for providing emergency financial assistance to families in need have been developed and approved by the Board of Directors. The bulk of this assistance is provided in response to eviction or utility shut-off notices but may also include other financial assistance such as food, clothing, medical, child care, or auto repair. Recipients all receive an in-home visit by our social service administrator and must meet specific eligibility requirements based on demonstrated financial need. Additionally, clients are restricted in terms of how often they may apply for and receive financial assistance from the Organization.
