Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 1a	George Fox owns a home that is suitable for University events and functions that are hosted by the university president and his/her spouse. The President is provided with this housing and the benefit is not included in taxable income. In order to enhance the influence of the University in the local community, Arlington Club dues are paid for the president. The Arlington Club provides a forum for networking within the business community to find people interested in investing time and resources in higher education. Dues paid are not included in taxable income. The president's spouse's attendance is required for some events and functions. Travel for those events/functions is considered to be an ordinary and necessary business expense for the President's spouse to accompany him and therefore is not included in taxable income.
Part I, Line 6	An across the board bonus was accrued for all non-officer employees (including Highest Compensated Employees listed in 990, Part VII, Section A, line 1a) based on a board mandated formula based on a specific calculation of Unrestricted Net Earnings. The bonuses were accrued in the current tax year, to be paid in the next fiscal year.
Part I, Line 7	Non-fixed bonuses are awarded based on achievement of specific performance metrics.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	Form 990 is prepared by a third-party accounting firm. Finance office staff, the Controller and the CFO review Form 990 before filing. The Board of Trustees Finance Committee reviews Form 990 after filing at their next meeting.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	All employees and Board of Trustee members are required to complete a new Conflict of Interest form each year. These records are monitored and reviewed by the Employee Empowerment Recruiter. The forms are maintained in the Employee Empowerment department. Periodically during the time-frame that these forms are sent to employees, the Employee Empowerment Recruiter sends out additional requests to those who have not completed the forms. This includes contacting employees' supervisors when necessary. If a conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest is notated on a form by the employee or trustee, Executive Director of Employee Empowerment reviews it. If more information is needed, she contacts the employee or trustee. If, in the Director's judgment, it is deemed not to be a conflict of interest, the form is filed and no further action is taken. If a conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest exists, the Director gives the form to the EVP for finance and Operations to review. If necessary, the EVP then contacts the employee or trustee or the head of the department that might be impacted by the conflict of interest (if it is an outside business the university might contract with for services or products) to ensure that sound business practices continue to be followed in selecting vendors, etc. Any employees or trustees with conflicts will be prohibited from any deliberations and decisions related to the conflict of interest.
