Name: COMMUNITY RESOURCES FOR CHILDREN

Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Alternative Payment Programs Are intended to serve two primary purposes (1) enable low-income families to work and (2) improve low-income childrens cognitive and educational development The Alternative Payment Program implements the guidelines issued by the California Department of Education to determine which families are eligible for a payment assistance voucher Once a family is determined to be eligible for a voucher, Case Managers work with the family to connect them to child care The Alternative Payment Program then reimburses the child care provider directly for the hours of eligible care used by the family During 2016-2017, payment assistance was provided to 253 families and 410 children

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

The Child Care and Resource and Referral Program imparts information to parents about the full range of child care and school readiness options available. The program counselors provide families with personalized child care referrals to licensed childcare facilities and offer guidelines for choosing quality child care. The program also maintains data on the supply and demand of child care in Napa County and educates the community about local child care issues and needs. The Resource and Referral program provided services to 479 families and 700 children.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Integrated Early Learning Program Funded by First 5 Napa County Children and Families Commission, Community Resources for Childrens Integrated Early Learning Program provides families with opportunities to engage with their children in quality early learning experiences supporting the social/emotional, cognitive, language and literacy development of children birth to 5 years old Components under this program include Active Minds, Early Learning Activities, the Toy Library and Early Learning Center, and Early Learning Partners The Active Minds program is a bilingual, play-based school readiness program for children ages 2 to 3 and their parents Similarly, Early Learning Activities afford parents who cannot make the time commitment to attend the Active Minds class the opportunity to engage in self-contained hands-on learning experiences In 2016-2017, Active Minds and Early Learning Activities served 346 children and 347 parents/caregivers The Toy Library and Early Learning Center at Community Resources for Children provides quality toys and early learning materials for loan at no cost to families and early childhood professionals in Napa County During Fiscal year 2016-2017, the Toy Library and Early Learning Center served 1,184 children ages 0-5 and 988 parents/caregivers The Early Learning Partners at Community Resources for Children is one component of the Napa Countys QRIS program, Quality Counts The Early Learning Partners use a relationship based coaching model to work with early childhood educators to enhance the quality of care and education provided The model uses reliable and research based assessment tools to determine opportunities to enhance program quality The coaching provides educators with the tools to meet their individualized improvement goals to better serve children in their care and to support childrens language, cognitive, physical and social development In 2016-2017, Early Learning Partners served 9 child care providers and 68 children

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d Other Program Services Description	OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 4 The Child Care Initiative Project provides technical support to individuals interested in obtaining child care licenses and delivers training to assist them in developing quality learning experiences and environments for children in their care. The project also focuses on the retention of family child care providers by offering work shops on the best practices in child care and current issues. The Child Care Initiative Project provided training and support to 28 child care providers. OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 5 Pathways to Quality is funded through Auction Napa Valley/Napa Valley Vintners Association's Early Learning Initiative and it preceded the implementation of QRIS in Napa County. Pathways to Quality offered support to increase and maintain quality preschool programs for private and public early care and education programs. The preschool programs are supported through a relationship based coaching model that uses reliable and accurate assessment tools. The Pathways to Quality program provided support and training to 9 child care professionals serving 67 children, and has since been folded into Quality Counts, QRIS in Napa County. OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 6 The California Health and Safety training is offered to California State Licensed Child Care Providers and others seeking child care licensing in the state of California. The purpose of the training is to teach individuals who work in the child care setting the knowledge and skills needed to keep children who are in their care safe and healthy. The Preventive Health and Safety program trained 9 child care providers. OTHER PROGRAM SERVICES 7 Other Programs
