Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Foundation follows the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in a nonpublic entity's financial statements. It details how entities should recognize, measure, present, and disclose uncertain tax positions that have been or are expected to be taken. As such, financial statements will reflect expected future tax consequences of uncertain tax positions presuming the taxing authorities' full knowledge of the position and all relevant facts. There was no impact to the Foundation's financial statements as a result of these provisions.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	The Form 990 is prepared by an independent tax preparer in conjunction with the organization's finance and accounting staff. The Form 990 is then reviewed by the in-house accountant, Director of Finance, and reviewed by the Board.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	Each board member, officer, and key employee of the Foundation signs an Annual Disclosure and Compliance Statement which (i) affirms that the person has received a copy of the Conflict of Interest Policy, has read and understood the policy, and has agreed to comply with the policy, and (ii) discloses the person's financial interests and family relationships that could give rise to conflicts of interest. When a potential conflict is identified, the Board shall determine if a conflict of interest exists and may delegate initial review and recommendation to its board governance/nominating committee and/or the executive committee. If a Director is the individual with which a potential conflict of interest is identified, the Director shall not participate in discussion or vote in any matter related to the transaction. The Board or designee committee members may ask questions of and receive presentations from the individuals with the potential conflict of interest and other interested persons. After exercising due diligence, which may include investigating alternatives that present no conflict, the Board or designee committee members vote upon the matter, the proceedings of which are recorded in the minutes of each Board meeting.
