Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	The Conflict of Interest policy applies to Interested Persons, which include any director, principal officer, or member of a committee with board delegated powers who have a direct or indirect financial interest in a potential transaction with Menlo College. Trustees are required to sign an annual Conflict of Interest form disclosing any potential conflicts at the October board meeting. A person with a potential conflict of interest may present material facts to the board or committee contemplating the potentially conflicted transaction. Non-interested members then determine whether a conflict of interest exists. If a conflict is determined to exist, the non-interested board or committee members investigate whether there is a more advantageous option available to Menlo College that would not present a conflict of interest. After evaluating options, a majority vote of non-interested members is needed to proceed with the proposed conflicted transaction. Persons with a potential conflict of interest are not permitted to participate in discussion or voting on matters pertaining to the potential conflict. Failure to disclose possible or actual conflicts of interest will result in investigation and/or appropriate disciplinary and corrective action.
