Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Education Fun in the SunFun in the Sun is a national award-winning summer learning program that provides comprehensive academic and enrichment curriculum, as well as family support services, that work to reduce summer learning loss and narrow the achievement gap in financially and academically at-risk children (grades 3-12) and their families. Over the six week program, 300 youth improve their academic, behavioral, and social skills, instead of falling behind Dolly Parton Imagination LibraryIn order to provide local children and families with much-needed access to age-appropriate reading materials and begin literacy improvement at birth/early age, UWSBC partnered with the Dollywood Foundation to provide the Dolly Parton Imagination Library. Over 1,100 enrolled students receive one new, expert-selected, age-appropriate book addressed to them each month from birth until their fifth birthday in order to jumpstart literacy activities at an early age and more effectively engage parents as their child's first teacher. Kindergarten Success InstitutesKindergarten Success Institutes improve classroom skills for 200 low-income 4-6 year olds who have little or no prior early educational experience. During the 4-6 week session (implemented before/after school and during the summer at 10 local sites), UWSBC provides best practice and research-based curriculum and credentialed teachers to help students master the social/emotional, language, motor and approach to learning skills that are essential to their future success in school. In 2016, participants improved their academic and social/emotional skills by 55%.
