Part X, Line 2	Generally accepted accounting principles provide accounting and disclosure guidance about positions taken by an organization in its tax returns that might be uncertain. The Organization recognizes the effect of income tax positions only if those positions are more likely than not of being sustained. Management of The Organization does not believe the financial statements include any uncertain tax positions. With few exceptions, the Organization is no longer subject to U.S. federal and state examinations by tax authorities for the fiscal years before 2014 and 2013, respectively.
