"Key to the City InitiativeFor over six years, we have partnered with community based organizations, public schools, foreign consulates, and New York City agencies on our Key to the City initiative to hold large-scale events in targeted communities to serve New York Citys most vulnerable residents in trusted spaces We held ten events in FY2017 that served 5,090 people, providing full legal clinics, consular ID services, IDNYC, financial literacy services, citizenship information, and other services ranging from tax preparation to pediatric dental screenings To date, we have held over 50 Key to the City events and worked with 15 consulates enabling us to reach hard-to-reach populations More than 35,000 immigrant community members from over 65 countries have attended these events, and more than 23,000 consular IDs and other documents have been issued

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

This Is Our New York - TiONYThe NYIC officially launched our rapid response initiative This is Our New York (TiONY) in December 2017, since then, we have responded nimbly to the federal administrations attacks on immigrants, while also strategizing around a longer-term policy and advocacy plan that will protect and promote the rights of immigrants rather than victimize them Throughout 2017 we have made significant progress in each of the six areas of This is Our New York advocacy and organizing, community outreach and education, legal services, combating hate crimes and intimidation, capacity-building for our member nonprofits, and building bridges with communities not sympathetic to immigrant concerns This year, the NYIC has reached roughly 30,000 New Yorkers through street outreach and more than 200 events including community education events, panels, and know-your-rights workshops, we have also developed and distributed more than 17,000 community safety toolkits We have mobilized tens of thousands of New Yorkers in response to the administrations Muslim and refugee ban and the end of Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals and Temporary Protected Status, led citywide and statewide advocacy efforts to ensure allocation of $40,000,000 in additional funding for legal services to immigrants, awarded re-grants ranging from $5,000-$30,000 to 36 member organizations based in and led by communities who are most impacted by the change in federal policies to build their capacity to provide education and services, and much more

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Legal Services The NYIC plays a critical role in supporting and coordinating nonprofit immigration legal service providers to help strengthen their capacity. To achieve this, the programs staff conducts advocacy and provides technical assistance to ensure that immigrants have access to high quality legal services and protection from unscrupulous providers. Additionally, the NYIC serves as New York State's official immigration services trainer, training approximately a thousand individuals each year on immigration law and related topics, and provides technical assistance to nonprofit organizations on their immigration legal work and in seeking accreditation by the US Department of Justice to provide immigration legal services. In response to emerging issues, Legal Initiatives staff have also produced community-friendly materials, coordinated mass outreach and assistance events for Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals, Temporary Protected Status, and unaccompanied minors, and coordinated a round-the-clock legal clinic for nine days in JFK Airport in the wake of the Muslim and Refugee ban of January 2017.
