Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The Foundation's mission is to offer student teaching opportunities to college students majoring in education and to develop after-school programs. The Foundation contracts with elementary, Junior high, and high schools and others to provide teaching fellows for after-school education and tutoring. Approximately 1,200 teaching fellows helped over 18,000 students each month at school sites during the current fiscal year. The Foundation operates one major program. The program receives its revenue from service fees and conducts its own programs at the school sites and contracts with other service providers to provide program content and administration. The Foundation is supported primarily by fees for services and grants and contributions. The Foundation's program is primarily conducted in (but is not limited to) Fresno, Madera, and Merced Counties.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X FIN48 Footnote	The Foundation is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and applicable state law. The accounting standard on accounting for uncertainty in income taxes addresses the determination of whether tax benefits claimed or expected to be claimed on a tax return should be recorded in the financial statements. Under that guidance, the Foundation may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities based on the technical merits of the position. Examples of tax positions include the tax-exempt status of the Foundation and various positions related to the potential sources of unrelated business taxable income (UBTI). The tax benefits recognized in the financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50 percent likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. There were no unrecognized tax benefits identified or recorded as liabilities for fiscal year ending July 31, 2017.
