Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

My Journey is a guided four-year educational program with research-based, student development focused curriculum. It is peer-guided and meets college women where they are academically and socially. Programs are developed specifically for each year of a member's college journey and teach life skills appropriate for every stage. MyJourney was implemented in 2012-2013 and is used by all active chapters.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Leadership Academy is a fraternity-supported program that provided training and education to all chapter presidents, vice presidents of risk management and vice presidents of chapter relations and standards. The training included sessions that focused on effective leadership strategies in such areas as action planning, values and ethics, decision-making, conflict management, and facilitation skills. The skills needed to be a chapter officer find their foundation in basic life skills that enable our members to be more successful within their interpersonal interactions, as leaders for their campuses and communities, and for their lives beyond their experiences in college.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Domestic Violence Awareness, Alpha Chi Omega works throughout the nation to build awareness of domestic violence, fighting against unhealthy relationships and working to build healthy relationships. Chapters work with local domestic violence organizations to raise funds and awareness for the cause. The Education and Leadership Initiatives Department works to develop national opportunities to support the cause and assists individual chapters in their efforts. Much of our efforts are targeted in October, in recognition of domestic violence awareness month, and in February, in celebration of Healthy Relationships Week.
