Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Foundation is organized as a not-for-profit corporation under Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code and corresponding state law. Additionally, the Foundation has been determined not to be a private foundation under Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code. Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require management to evaluate tax positions taken by the Foundation and recognize a tax liability if the Foundation has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by various federal and state taxing authorities. Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by the Foundation, and has concluded that as of August 31, 2017, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability or disclosure in the accompanying financial statements. As such, the Foundation is generally exempt from income taxes. However, the Foundation is required to file Federal Form 990 Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, and a similar state return, which are informational returns only. The Foundation is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions. However, as of the date the financial statements were available to be issued, there were no audits for any tax periods in progress.
