Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Creative Writing Education The Organization offered Creative Writing Classes during fiscal year 2017 at Open Book, at libraries and community sites throughout the greater Twin Cities area and online. Adults and youth (ages 6-90+) at all levels of artistic development furthered their skills in classes focused on fiction, poetry, creative nonfiction, screen/playwriting, childrens literature, graphic novel, and other literary forms as well as learning more about developing a writing practice and career. All classes were taught by accomplished writers and literary professionals. This year, the Organization served 3,038 adults and 809 youth in 386 classes and workshops, schools and community programs, and three conferences, spanning the broadest range of genres. Poetry Out Loud a recitation competition, offered 7,597 students from 33 Minnesota schools the opportunity to participate in literary learning opportunities and advance to a national competition. To mitigate financial barriers to participation in creative writing classes, the Organization provided 733 low income discounts and 203 scholarships, in addition to a work-study program, and free writing classes in partnership with eight regional library systems across the greater Twin Cities. Other collaborations with libraries, schools, community centers and human service organizations brought the Organization's education programs to a range of locations throughout the state.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Awards, Grants, and Events In fiscal year 2017, the Organization provided a range of competitive opportunities that allowed emerging writers to advance their artistic and professional development. McKnight Artist Fellowships for Writers provided five Minnesota writers of demonstrated ability with grants of $25,000, buying them time to concentrate on their craft. The writers were competitively selected for awards in creative prose and children's literature. Minnesota Emerging Writers Grant awarded five grants of $8,000 each to competitively selected, emerging writers for activities up to one year in length that will bring them to the next stage in their artistic development and writing careers. The Mentor Series in Poetry and Creative Prose offered twelve emerging Minnesota writers opportunity to work intensively with six nationally acclaimed writers in prose and poetry. Four writers in each genre were selected for the program by the mentors. Mentors and mentees spend time working in groups and one-on-one and mentees receive a $1,000 grant. Students and mentors present their work in public readings throughout the year. The Spoken Word Immersion Fellowship provided grants of $7,500 for four spoken word artists/artist teams of color to pursue projects in the communities that inspire their work. Literary Events - Authors readings and performances helped develop audiences for literature while promoting and advancing the work of individual writers. Events also featured writers and thought leaders using literature to spur conversations on topical issues. Events took place throughout the year at the Target Performance Hall in Open Book, as well as at a variety of partner locations. Four thousand individuals attended the 60+ events including community gatherings and shared readings featuring mentors with mentees from the Mentor Series, judges of the McKnight Artist Fellowships for Writers, authors of young adult literature, Minnesota writers with new publications, student and teaching artists reading their work, nationally acclaimed visiting writers, and spoken word performers. In almost all cases, the readings, interviews and performances were followed by a dialogue with the artists.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Writing Community and Writers Services Loft.org, the Organizations website, provided regular articles and fostered discussions about the writers life and craft Through a daily blog, The Writers Block There, writers found writing exercises, literary reviews, commentary, news, and discussion The site also included interviews, a calendar of readings and events, an online catalog of classes, and resources including information about writing groups, competitions, grants, awards, publishers, and agents Visitors perused and checked out current and back issues of literary magazines as well as books published by Minnesota presses, books by regional writers including the Organizations instructors, members and students, and writers' reference books from The Rachel Anne Gaschott Ritchie Small Press Library Sixty-three writers made use of the Organizations writers studios, four Organization-sponsored culturally distinct writing groups met regularly at Open Book and more than twenty literary groups used the Book Club Room this year

Return Reference	Explanation
PROCESS THE ORGANIZATION USES TO REVIEW THE 990	An initial draft of the 990 is reviewed in detail by the finance committee of the board. After changes or corrections, if needed, the near final draft of the 990 is distributed to full board in pre-read material prior to the January board meeting. The treasurer/finance committee chair reviews the document for the board with assistance of representatives from the independent auditors. Board members are invited to ask questions and submit any further corrections. The Treasurer recommends approval of the 990 (with changes, as needed) and a full vote of the board is called. The board must approve the 990 before it is submitted.
