Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The organization operates over two dozen unaccompanied minors programs that serve youth who enter the United States without parents or adult guardians and have been detained by immigration officials. As one of the largest providers of shelter services to unaccompanied minors in the United States, our programs encourage the development of personal, social, academic, and vocational skills while the minors await reunification with their families and/or resolution of their legal cases. Minors are provided with education, counseling, casework management, recreation, and medical services. Our program honors and respects individual cultures and traditions, as well as offers opportunities for acculturation. These humanitarian services are provided in a nurturing, strength-based environment.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

The organization operates approximately 60 community-based or youth-justice programs that provide a wide range of services to youth and their families. Overall, the organization operates programs in 7 states with over 4,500 employees serving over 60,000 people annually.

Form 990, Part VI, Section A, line 2	Juan Sanchez(President/CEO) and Jennifer Sanchez(Vice President of Community Engagement) are husband and wife

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b	The return is reviewed by the organization's CFO and general counsel. After said review, the return is distributed to the audit committee for its consideration and approval. After approval, the return is circulated to the board of directors and filed timely.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	In connection with an actual or possible conflict of interest, an interested person must disclose the existence of the financial or personal interest and be given the opportunity to disclose all material facts. Determinations regarding conflict of interest inquiries are documented in the minutes of the board of directors or through a written report provided by the CEO to the board of directors. The interested party involved does not participate in a decision related to the potential conflict. If a conflict of interest exists, a determination will be made regarding whether a more advantageous arrangement is possible. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible, then it is determined by a majority vote of the disinterested person whether the conflict of interest is fair and in the organization's best interest.

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	The organization's CEO's compensation is reviewed and approved by the board of directors annually. The board of directors determined the CEO's compensation based on comparable market data. The CEO determines compensation of the other positions based on the comparable market rate.
