Name: Washington Retail Association

Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

The Washington Retail Association supports an influential and dynamic industry that's undergoing a technological evolution. Despite some new threats, the industry is growing nationally and thriving in Washington State's healthy economy. WRA's members operate more than 3,500 storefronts in each of the state's legislative districts. Nearly 400,000 of the nation's 30 million retail employees work in Washington State. Retail employment has grown nearly 25% statewide in the past decade while taxable retail sales are up 35% in the past five years. Sales tax revenues fund the bulk of bedrock governmental social services throughout the state. This growth rests upon a foundation of historically low state unemployment rates. Regardless, WRA's mission is more important today than it ever has been since its establishment in 1987. Despite retail's growth, computer technology is churning the workforce and threatening jobs while creating new career paths. As some online sellers prosper, traditional brick-and-mortar retailers are streamlining. The threats to the industry are broader than just technological. Governments are increasingly leaning on the industry with burdensome regulations and labor benefits that threaten the livelihoods of entire businesses. Retailers, from national chains to sole proprietorships and everyone in between, need a focused and compelling voice to engage in the public debate of how best to regulate the industry and grow the economies it supports. This is the essence of WRA's role as Washington's exclusive advocacy group for retailers. At the same time, WRA offers an array of cost-saving services to add value to members. We plan to remain a pivotal player in working to anticipate and shape retail's evolution through the remainder of the decade and beyond.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Member Services The Retail Industry is changing but our dedication to perfecting our members experience never will. Retail Association Services, a subsidiary of Washington Retail Association offers companies the ultimate "Boutique Experience" of services. Whether it be advocating locally, statewide or nationally for members or actively pursuing services that enhance their businesses, we are the association that understands not only the industry, but also the unique individual qualities of large and small companies in Washington State. Retailers representing all categories and sizes recognize the value of combining resources and ideas knowing that a strong association could achieve goals no single business could accomplish individually. WRA is the only organization that looks at every legislative bill and state agency regulation proposed, year-round from an exclusively retail perspective. Today the Association is recognized by merchants, legislators, state officials and other trade groups as a powerful and effective spokesperson for the retail industry. Retail Association Services offers one of the few ways in Washington State that employers can recoup some of the dollars paid in workers compensation premiums. Our very successful Group Retrospective Rating (RETRO) program offers members a financial incentive by providing a safe work environment and reducing work place injuries. We protect and save companies money and risk by implementing our aggressive pro-active claims management system, early return to work programs, loss analysis/risk assessments, and robust safety training programs. We have a proven record of success and offer our membership a financially sound program.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

We continue to evolve update our services to correspond with the ever-changing needs of the retail industry Our goal is to help companies be successful and increase profits Along with the changes to technology brings increased concerns of cyber security threats We no offer security training webinars to educate members on how to reduce exposure Also offered to members are consultations and advice related to workforce issues We have an HR expert on staff ready to assist and answer questions regarding rules and regulations in Washington State we are a value-based organization and continue to build upon our 30-year reputation of trust and transparency we pride ourselves on the flexibility, expertise and commitment to excellence our members have come to count on
