990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15a	The Fund for the City of New York's Board of Directors reviews and approves the compensation for the President of the Fund and the top earners under the President. During the most recent salary review of the Fund's President, an outside consulting firm, The Hay Group, was hired to review her salary. The review compared the President's salary against the salaries of her peers in similar organizations. The Hay Group then brought their recommendation to the Board of Directors for review and approval. This type of review is completed every one to five years, and is initiated by the Board Chair. The President approves all other salaries. All data pertaining to salary history is maintained in an employee's personnel folder. Annually, the Fund's Board of Directors completes a conflict of interest form, which lists any and all conflicts a board member may have with any of the Fund's activity, including the President's and key personnel salaries.
