Client Note 1	Client Note 1 - Purpose for Endowment Jones Academy Foundation The Choctaw Nation, where Jones Academy Foundation is housed and supported, is working on a 100 year vision Jones Academy is a legacy school of the Choctaw Nation and is therefore part of that vision At the present time, things are going well for the Choctaw Nation Leadership includes a Chief, Assistant Chief, and Tribal Council who care a great deal about the people they serve and place a high priority on education Gaming brings in a steady cash flow This means the Tribe itself is currently able to meet most of the needs of Jones Academy The Chief of the Choctaw Nation is an elected official We can't know the desires or priorities of a Chief who may serve 20, 30, or 100 years from now Also, future gaming dollars could be lost due to competition or legislation, hampering funding for Jones An endowment has been set up by Jones Academy Foundation (JAF) to ensure that the school will go on far into the future, regardless of economic or political downturn The plan is to grow the endowment to sufficient size ($40 million) that the principal might never be touched and only the interest will be used to support the school Currently, the Choctaw Nation matches donations from the public to the endowment dollar for dollar The endowment is only one fund within JAF Other funds, such as the scholarship fund, and librarian fund are distributed according to their guidelines each year, usually using 100% of those funds There are also individuals who give directly to Jones Academy without going through the foundation One of the board members gave every child at Jones a $50 gift certificate from Walmart this past Christmas Another board member sent money directly to the school to be used for Christmas Yet another board member drives to the school several times a year with a carload of books for the library and will read to the children and have them read to her Other individuals donate their time, expertise, and resources to better the lives of the children at Jones Academy To summarize, the endowment is being built in today's good times to be certain Jones Academy can go on even in future bad times The Choctaw Nation Mission Statement "To enhance the lives of all members through opportunities designed to develop healthy, successful and productive lifestyles " This is what we want for the children of the 29 tribes represented at Jones Academy
