Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 12c	ASHLAND HOSPITAL CORPORATION (AHC) requires all directors, officers, and key employees to comply with its Conflicts of Interest Policy, which tracks the IRS's recommended policy with respect to such officers and directors. Members of the Medical Center's Board of Directors must annually identify, in writing, any interest that could give rise to a conflict, such as a leadership position in a conflicting organization; disclosure is not limited to financial conflicts. Leadership employees must annually certify, in writing, that they know our conflicts of interest policy and procedure and have no conflicts of interest. In addition, employees of the Medical Center certify that no conflicts of interest exist or obtain an advance waiver of any conflicts. The Medical Center's Human Resources Department maintains all relevant disclosures and signatures. If a conflict of interest is reported, the Vice President to whom the reporting employee directly or indirectly reports, together with the CEO, Chief Corporate Compliance Officer and General Counsel, determines if a conflict exists. If the reporting employee is a Vice President, the CEO, in consultation with the General Counsel, determines if a conflict exists. A member of the Medical Center's Board of Directors reports any conflict or potential conflict to the Chairman of the Board, the CEO and/or the General Counsel of the Medical Center, as appropriate. If it is determined that a conflict exists, the employee or Board member is removed from any part of the decision-making process, and has no role in the instance in which the conflict exists. A Board member who has a conflict of interest must abstain from any relevant discussion or vote. If a conflict of interest is discovered after the fact, the CEO and Vice President, together with the General Counsel, if appropriate, reviews the instance in which the conflict occurred. Those leaders ensure that the conflicted individual did not influence decision-making or profit from the conflict. The conflicted individual is removed from any further involvement. In addition, any failure to report conflicts of interest violates the Medical Center's policy and could result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment or removal from the Medical Center's Board of Directors. KML follows AHC's conflict of interest policy.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 15	At the direction of the Human Resources & Compensation Committee of the Board of King's Daughters Health System (KDHS), KDHS engaged Sullivan Cotter and Associates, Inc , a leading independent compensation consulting company specializing in executive, employee, and physician compensation and benefits for the health care and not-for-profit industry to assist in determining compensation of the CEO, vice presidents, and chief medical officers. This is an annual process and Sullivan Cotter's most recent executive compensation review was performed in 2016. The principle objective of this study was to assemble a detailed profile of the current compensation levels available to executives managing similar tasks and responsibilities as members of the KDHS executive team. Moreover, the objective was to compile market data for each position that was reflective of the pay levels offered by independent, not-for-profit health care organizations of comparable size with operations in the United States. The Sullivan Cotter data coupled with the performance of the organization as well as the personal performance of each executive is the basis for KDHS's Human Resource & Compensation Committee's review and recommendations, and the Board's review and approval of compensation increases. The process includes a review and approval by independent persons, comparability data and contemporaneous substantiation of the deliberation and decision. This process was used to determine compensation for the following positions - President /CEO - VP, Chief Compliance Officer - VP, Chief Financial Officer - VP, Chief Legal & Regulatory Officer/General Counsel - Chief Medical Officers - VP, People Services - VP, Executive Director King's Daughters Integrated Physicians - VP, Patient Services/Chief Nursing Officer
