Part I, Line 2	A committee is formed that is chaired by the tournament's vice chairman and made up of members of the board of directors and tournament staff. Each application is reviewed by the committee to ensure it meets the guidelines for grants. The committee then ranks their top choices and the top total point recipients are nominated to be reviewed for possible grant recipients. Each committee member is then assigned a charity to do a site visit. After the site visits, the committee reconvenes and discusses their visit upon which another vote is conducted by the committee to determine the charities that will be recommended to receive the grants for the tournament. The charity nominations are then forwarded to the executive committee for approval.
