The Trust and its affiliates received tax determination letters from the Internal Revenue Service indicating that they are tax-exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and, except for taxes pertaining to unrelated business income, are exempt from federal and state income taxes. No provision has been made for income taxes. Springboard had no unrelated business income.

The Trust and its affiliates account for uncertain tax positions in accordance with FASB interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes (included in FASB ASC Subtopic 740-10. There is no impact on the consolidated financial statements as a result of this pronouncement. On December 22, 2017, the President signed into law H.R. 1. The new law includes several provisions that result in substantial changes to the tax treatment of tax-exempt organizations and their donors. These provisions were reviewed and it was determined that the enactment of H.R. 1 will not have a material effect on the operations of the Springboard Foundation

Form 990, Part I (summary Line 1 and Part III (Statement of Program Service Accomplishments), Line 1

The mission of the Springboard Foundation is to provide financial and intellectual capital to selected "grass roots" charitable programs that otherwise would have difficulty obtaining financial support. Springboard's primary focus is afterschool and supplemental education programs. Since inception, Springboard has helped numerous programs grow and become self-sustaining, so that they can continue to provide Chicago public school students with educational and out-of-school activities that are so critical to personal growth and success. In addition to contributing funds to Springboard, Springboard members go on site visits to meet nonprofit leaders and see their programs in action. During the year, members maintain contact with the nonprofits and marshal all of the resources at their disposal - time, treasure, knowledge and network - to ensure that they grow into sustainable organizations.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B (Policies) Line 11

The Form 990 is mailed to the President and Treasurer of the Board for review and approval before filing with the IRS. The report is subsequently shared with the full board.

Form 990, Part VI Section C (Disclosure), Line 19

Documents are made available to the public as requested. Currently the organization does not have a formal conflict of Interest policy, whistleblower policy or document retention & destruction policy. Springboard currently follows the policies of The Chicago Community Trust.

Form 990, Part VII, Section A. Officers, Directors, Trustee, Key Employees, and Highly Compensated Employees, Column B

Activities of the Board include: attending and preparing for board meetings, grant reviews, strategic planning, and various administrative matters; serving on various sub-committees of the Foundation; recruiting new board members; and representing the Foundation at various events.

Form 990, Part XII, Financial Statements and Reporting, Line 2C

The audit committee of the supported organization, The Chicago Community Trust assumes responsibility for oversight of the audit, review of the financial statements and selection of the independent accountants.
