Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2; Part III, column (b); and any other additional information.

We apply to private businesses, foundations and grant funds for projects based on need in the rural region. As part of the organization's grant process, we note in broad categories

(e.g., health & public safety, education & workforce, training, outreach & promotion) how much funding we are requesting, what types of activities the funding will be utilized for and what the benefit of the project is as it correlates to the organization's mission/vision. At the end of the grant year an online report is prepared and provided to the organization's grant or social responsibility fund coordinator where a list of specific assistance was provided and at what cost (i.e., XYZ Fire Department received $25,000 for communication and safety equipment).
