Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	PYXERA is exempt from federal income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. In addition, PYXERA qualifies for charitable contribution deductions and has been classified as an organization that is not a private foundation. Business income that is not related to exempt purposes, less applicable deductions, is subject to federal and state corporate income taxes. PYXERA may recognize the tax benefit from an uncertain tax position only if it is more likely than not that the tax position will be sustained on examination by taxing authorities, based on the technical merits of the position. The tax benefits recognized in the consolidated financial statements from such a position are measured based on the largest benefit that has a greater than 50% likelihood of being realized upon ultimate settlement. PYXERA did not have any net unrelated business income for the years ended September 30, 2017 and 2016. Generally, PYXERA is no longer subject to U.S. federal income tax positions by tax authorities for years before 2014. In December 2017, the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act (TCJA) was passed, which resulted in revisions to the tax code related to tax-exempt organizations including excise tax payments for executive compensation over $1 million, changes in unrelated business income tax offsetting activities and related taxes, and taxes due on select employee transportation plans. PYXERA Global is currently evaluating the impact of TCJA on the consolidated financial statements. TCJA revisions will be effective for the year ending September 30, 2018.
