Return Reference	Explanation
Part I, Line 2	The Foundation funds a minimum of two research grants annually. The grant solicitation process includes advertising the grant application on the website, via major medical cancer groups and through individual institutions. The Foundation has one senior medical advisor, seven other medical advisors, one scientific medical advisor, one legal advisor, and two ombudsmen, who are all volunteers. The medical advisors review all grant applications received by the Foundation, write independent summaries and ratings, and presents the individual and collective summaries and ratings to the Board of Directors. The Board then reviews the summaries and ratings and approves the grants to be funded.
