College access and alumni services The Organization helps students realize the best educational opportunities possible by providing one-on-one college and financial aid counseling and college preparation workshops throughout their junior and senior years of high school. These services ensure that students have the tools to successfully navigate the college admissions process. An array of alumni services provide help beyond high school and college. Examples include networking social events with other alumni and donors and professional development services such as career workshops, internships, and access to professional mentors.

Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Summer experiential education programs - each student receives two full scholarships to life-changing summer experiential education programs, including wilderness leadership expeditions, academic enrichment programs, community service and home-stay abroad. These programs enable students to push themselves and succeed beyond what they think is possible physically, emotionally, and intellectually. Weekly Mentoring - full time staff work one-on-one with students providing holistic support and challenging students to gain greater self-awareness and accept responsibility for their growth and academic success. Through mentoring, students build a trusting and enduring relationship with an adult, some for the first time in their lives.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Staff training and development Summer Search conducts a strong training effort to teach the uniquely effective interview process that identifies students that have leadership potential through an original youth development model that identifies three character metrics that it hopes to cultivate in young people resiliency, altruism, and performance The Organization provides a comprehensive training program to staff in order to develop and improve mentoring skills which can help students develop relational, leadership and resiliency skills Training is conducted year-round through a series of intensive workshops delivered in person by highly-trained staff and youth development experts

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

College success Summer Search knows that it is not enough to get students to college, but it is important to support them so they can attain a Bachelor's Degree and are set up for future success. The first few years of college can be extremely challenging, particularly for first generation college students. For this reason, Summer Search supports students through this transition and offers professional development and career readiness services so they graduate with the network, skills, and experiences necessary to competitively enter the workforce. Our College Success staff support students throughout their post-secondary education, especially in their first two years of college (when risk of drop-off is highest), to ensure they are progressing academically, securing financial aid, engaging on campus, and adopting effectively. We provide college students with on-going mentoring, college and financial aid counseling, professional internships, robust networking opportunities with effective role models, career development support, peer support, and philanthropic opportunities.

| Schedule D, Part X, Line 2 | The organization is a qualified organization exempt from federal and California income taxes under the provisions of 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and 23701d of the California Revenue and Taxation code, respectively. U.S. GAAP requires management to evaluate the tax provisions taken and recognize a tax liability (or asset) if the organization has taken uncertain tax provision that more-likely-than-not would be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities. Management has analyzed the tax provision taken and has concluded that as of September 30, 2017, there are no uncertain tax provisions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a tax liability (or asset) or disclosure in the financial statements. The Organization is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions, however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods pending or in progress. |
