Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Training Programs Global Action's training program is called GLOMOS It stands for Global Module Studies The program teaches pastors who have not had any formal Bible school training It is a 9 month course that teaches biblical basics and is nondenominational The goal is multiplication in that these pastors then train others in their towns and villages Courses are taught in Central America, Eastern Europe, and Central Asia

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Ministry Coordination Global Action maintains four international offices worldwide. These offices are headquarters for projects in each of their respective countries. Global Action provides ministry and project support for each office as part of its program services; this support allows the offices to hire locally thereby supporting the local community (various project areas) as part of its outreach.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Compassion & Youth Programs Global Action has many compassion programs with the main focus being on orphans and marginalized. We provide numerous camps during the summer and Christmas months allowing children to be in a loving environment where they are cared for, encouraged, and taught lessons from the bible. We also help local churches with relief in their communities, both Christians and non-Christians.

Part X, Line 2	The financial statement effects of a tax position taken or expected to be taken are recognized in the financial statements when it is more likely than not, based on the technical merits, that the position will be sustained upon examination. Interest and penalties, if any, are included in expenses in the statements of activities. As of September 30, 2017, Global Action had no uncertain tax positions that qualify for recognition or disclosure in the financial statements. Global Action's Federal Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Returns (Form 990) for the years ended September 30, 2016, 2015, 2014, and 2013 are subject to examination by the IRS, generally for three years after they are filed.
