Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	IH is exempt from Federal and state income taxes on related income under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and related state law. Accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America require management to evaluate tax positions taken by IH and recognize a tax liability if IH has taken an uncertain position that more likely than not would not be sustained upon examination by various federal and state taxing authorities. Management has analyzed the tax positions taken by IH and has concluded that as of October 31, 2017 and 2016, there are no uncertain positions taken or expected to be taken that would require recognition of a liability or disclosure in the accompanying financial statements. IH is subject to routine audits by taxing jurisdictions, however, there are currently no audits for any tax periods in progress. IH is generally exempt from income taxes. However, IH is required to file Federal Form 990 - Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax and a corresponding state return, which are informational returns only. IH has filed federal and state income tax returns for periods through October 31, 2016. These income tax returns are generally open to examination by the relevant taxing authorities for a period of three years from the later of the date the return was filed or its due date (including approved extensions).
