Part I Summary

1 Briefly describe the organization's mission or most significant activities
Disadvantaged and marginalized populations are generally not comfortable asking for assistance when they do not comprehend formal processes and applications. Many miss opportunities, benefits, and entitlements because they become frustrated with formal processes. This program employs youth to provide assistance and communications to the elderly, the disabled, and other non-native speaking and/or low functioning individuals in a non-intimidating, informal environment. Our mission is to promote self-sufficiency and acceptance by bridging the gap between generations.
