Part IV Supplemental Information. Provide the information required in Part I, line 2; Part III, column (b); and any other additional information.

Organizations requesting funds from Black Diamond Foundation, Inc submit a "Community Grant Request" which sets forth the amount of the request, to what use the funds will be put, and how the use of those funds for that purpose will benefit Citrus County Residents. In addition, the requesting organization must provide copies of its previous year's financial statement, current year's budget and previous year's tax return (if required to file). Most of the organizations which request funds do so on an annual basis. When a requesting organization appears before the Board after receiving a grant from the Foundation, that organization is asked to give a report of how the funds were used and if the program is being continued, etc.

Some of the members of the Board of Directors and some of the members of the Black Diamond community serve as volunteers for the Section 501(c)(3) organizations listed on Schedule L, Part II, Line 1. We are continually updated on the needs of Citrus County and on the effectiveness of the programs we support through our contacts with the tax exempt community.
