Gains in market value of investments during 2017 resulted in larger than usual capital gains and dividends. These larger returns kept the public support level just below the required level.

Donations from the public are made to the Sunfield Area Sponsors of Programs for Youth which are designated for deposit in the Scholarship Fund.

Periodically, that organization makes a grant of these donations to the SPYs Community Foundation for investment purposes.

The SPYs Community Foundation manages the investment of these funds and annually makes a grant to the Sunfield Area Sponsors of Programs for Youth for the purpose of awarding scholarships to local area graduating seniors

The SPYs Community Foundation has a governing body comprised of one representative each from local churches, civic groups and local governmental units, all acting independently.

All of the income of the SPYs Community Foundation comes from the public via donations to the Scholarship Fund or from interest and dividends from investing those donations.
