Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

In 2017, NAA continued its public awareness efforts by establishing an extensive social networking campaign providing vital information, support and resources to the autism community and the general public. Their "Give a Voice" program provides assistive communication devices to non-verbal or minimally verbal individuals. The program also assists with personal safety. NAA distributed its Big Red Safety Boxes containing materials to help dangerous wandering and elopement incidents to over 6,000 families across the U.S. at no charge. NAA also provided safety training to caregivers, social workers and first responders. NAA also offered information and support through its website, toll-free line and its four day National Autism Conference featuring renowned experts.

Part X, Line 2	The organization is a nonprofit corporation exempt from income taxes as a public charity under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Other significant tax positions include its determination of whether any amounts are subject to unrelated business income tax (UBIT). Management has determined the organization had no activities subject to UBIT in the year ended December 31, 2017. All significant tax positions have been considered by management and it has determined that it is more likely than not that all tax positions would be sustained upon examination by taxing authorities.
