Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990 Part VI Section B Line 12c	The Foundation is committed to integrity and fairness in the conduct of all its activities. Inevitably, the interests of directors and employees will involve them in organizations, causes, and other endeavors that intersect with the affairs of the Foundation. It would disadvantage the Foundation to deprive it of the involvement of interested colleagues, but their participation in Foundation decision-making cannot impair the fairness and integrity of Foundation processes. Directors and employees of the Foundation are committed to communicating fully with the Foundation regarding any relationship or commitment that could affect the impartial fulfillment of their role in the affairs of the Foundation. Disclosures ordinarily should be made to the CEO or President by members of the staff and to the Chair of the Board by other members of the Board of Directors. Formal notation of disclosures should be a part of the process.

990 Schedule O, Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Form 990 Part VI Section B Line 15	The performance evaluation of the CEO is a two-part process, a formative assessment that occurs all year, and a summative assessment that occurs on or close to the date of employment of the CEO. The formative assessment occurs as weekly meetings between the CEO and the board chair, these meetings are a chance to talk over current projects, recent achievements, and upcoming events. During the meetings, the board chair takes notes for his files on the progress of the CEO toward meeting the goals as stated in the strategic plan. In concert with the CEO Performance Review Committee, the board chair requests the CEO to write a self-evaluation that describes progress during the preceding year as related to the goals and objectives of the strategic plan. The CEO Performance Review Committee also solicits feedback and input from all board members, and may also request information from staff and key volunteers as appropriate. The CEO then meets one-on-one with the board chair to discuss both the self-evaluation and the board feedback. After this session, the board chair convenes the executive committee of the board for a formal performance review. Part of this session is "Executive Session" during which the CEO is asked to leave the room so that the committee members can discuss the information. The executive committee then prepares a recommendation for either retention or termination of the CEO and presents it to the full board. The full board conducts a formal vote on the recommendation (along with any changes proposed) as presented by the executive committee. The board chair then communicates the results of the vote of the CEO, and writes a formal performance review letter to the CEO and if required a letter describing compensation adjustments and future performance expectations. Appropriate compensation is then established by reviewing the Council on Foundations annual salary survey, the Colorado Nonprofit Association annual salary survey and by checking the Guidestar database for the compensation levels at comparable foundations in the state of Colorado. We use the Council on Foundations salary survey, MSEC and the Colorado Nonprofit Association annual salary survey to create appropriate compensation levels for our staff. Currently, our staff members are at or just below the median for the positions they hold at PPCF.
