Additionally, the Community Café program provided boxes of food staples, dairy and produce. More than 3,000 boxes were distributed to clients at our outreach center. Some of the produce distributed was grown at our own community garden, which also provides employment opportunities for program participants. The Café bread room also provides bread and baked goods daily for clients to take as they leave the center. Part VI, 11 Board members, staff and volunteer bookkeeping staff are involved in gathering the information for the operations and various programs of The Journey Home. Board Members are presented Form 990 via email and it is then reviewed at board meeting. Auditors also present final financial statements and audit annually at board meeting. Additionally, we review financial information at each board meeting in order to keep board members abreast. Former board member (retired CPA) continues to be involved in bookkeeping and monitoring financials throughout the year.

Part VI, 12 The Journey Home has a conflict of interest policy and each board member is required to review and sign acknowledgement of it at first board meeting of each year. Forms are kept on file. Notes are kept in board meeting minutes regarding any conflicts that arise and the actions of the member(s) affected.

Part VI, Line 15 The board evaluates the salaries of the ED and senior managers. The ED is responsible to propose salaries as part of the annual budget process along with substantiation. We use non-profit salary survey information from the Center for NonProfit Management, which is published every other year. The board approves final salary plan as part of annual budget.

Part VI, 19 The Journey Home keeps a copy of the 990 on file at the office for public review. The policy manual is available for clients and other interested parties to view at the office. Policy information is also included on program applications and brochures. Code of Conduct and expectations are posted in lobbies. Financial reporting is also reported on-line at Guidestar.org and GivingMatters.com.

Part III, 4 We have chosen to aggregate individual services as outreach center services because they are collectively part of a broad array of services that are tailored to meet individual client needs at our outreach center as part of a "basic needs" resource.
