Explanation: We would like to request an abatement of the estimated late filing penalty of 28,100. Our organization sold the building, land, and contents of the building during 2017. We required guidance on how to record this transaction correctly. This took additional time beyond the extended due date. We are now aware of the procedures required for selling an asset and procedures in place so this does not occur in the future. Payment of this penalty would have a huge negative impact on the ability of our organization to continue running the program. There was no attempt on our part to withhold information from the IRS or prejudice the Federal Government. We respectfully request abatement of any late filing penalties and interest.
