Part III Line 2 - The Beth Wright Center in collaboration with Healthy Acadia implemented a robust patient-centered cancer patient navigation system in Washington County, Maine. Our two patient navigators addressed the significant health challenges faced by community members in Washington County in terms of high incidence of cancer, high mortality rates, and limited access to care. They saw around 90 people in this first year of the program. The hope is that the patient navigator program will lead to a reduction in the incidence and mortality of cancer in Washington County in the coming years.
