Form 990 (2017)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

MNRAAA funds core services to help older adults and caregivers living at home, collaborates with communities, counties and health and social service providers to increase local capacity to meet the needs of an aging population, and provides older adults, their families and caregivers with information about services, financial assistance and health care coverage through the senior linkage line. Persons age 60 and above and caregivers are served. As part of their programs, MNRAAA runs the Return to Community initiative, which is the in-person assistance role of the Senior LinkAge Line service that provides in-person care transitions support. Staff work closely with nursing home residents, their families and nursing facility staff to make sure support is in place for the resident's return home. The initiative was expanded to include people living in the community who were at risk of nursing home placement.

Supplemental Information

Return Reference	Explanation
Part X, Line 2	The Agency is a nonprofit organization described in Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is exempt from Federal and State income taxes. The Agency has analyzed filing positions with the Internal Revenue Service and the State of Minnesota. The Agency is subject to routine audits by these jurisdictions, however, the Agency is currently not under any audits for any tax periods. The Agency does not anticipate any of its income tax filing positions would result in a material adverse effect on the Agency's financial condition, results of operations or cash flow. No liability has been recorded for uncertain tax positions. As allowed under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, the Agency would accrue, if applicable, income tax related interest and penalties in income tax expense in the Agency's statement of operations. During the year ended December 31, 2017, the Agency did not recognize any interest or penalties. With few exceptions, the Agency is no longer subject to tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2015.
