1 It is our intention that as scholarship recipients understand the gospel their ministry will affect a large and unnumbered populous with that gospel, thereby furthering our mission. Junior year Theology, Religion, and biblical languages majors at Walla Walla University and Seminary students nearing final semester at Andrews University are eligible. They research the topic, write an essay and speak on the subject then are interviewed on their experience throughout the scholarship process which begins in September and ends April 15 when the above requirements are due. Our board uses these items to ascertain that applicants have done the research and understand the topic. Awards are made directly to the University and credited to the recipients senior year expenses. Their speeches and interviews are published online. Over 1200 people benefited from these postings. We received 12 applications and awarded 8 scholarships.	115,938
2 Small churches are provided resources and counsel on the gospel and ways to further their mission outreach and equipment with which to provide video online presence, furthering our mission of sharing the Gospel of Jesus. Righteousness by Faith alone. Three churches benefited, about 220 people and an unnumbered amount of individuals benefited from their online postings.	42,371
3 Churches, Christian TV and Radio stations are provided resources on the gospel and counsel on way to further their mission outreach. One TV station and two churches benefited, over 100,000 benefiting including those benefiting thru the TV station.	31,583
4 Our Gospel Presentations and those by our scholarship recipients are video recorded and uploaded to our website and you tube channels. Gospel Research material is available on the website as are applications for scholarships. Photographs are also available by request for use only in gospel presentations. 7,200 people viewed the website and there were 62 downloads of gospel research material. There were over 600 views on our youtube channels.	834
