Schedule H, Part VI, Line 4	Grady is the safety net provider for the core of the metropolitan Atlanta. This area includes five counties and more than 3 million people. Grady's primary service area is Fulton and DeKalb Counties, which contain about 1.7 million people or 17 percent of the state's total population. According to Grady's 2016 CHNA, the African American population constitutes more than half of the population in DeKalb County and more than 40 percent of the population in Fulton County, while the Hispanic/Latino population constitutes about 10 percent in both counties. The DeKalb and Fulton populations are also relatively young. More than 40 percent of the population in both counties is in the 18-44 age cohort and the median age is 35 years. The percentage of the population living at or below the Federal Poverty Level 24,300 for a family of four has increased in both counties. Nearly 40 percent and 35 percent of DeKalb and Fulton residents, respectively, live at 200 percent of the FPL.
Schedule H, Part VI, Line 5	Grady's Marcus Stroke and Neuroscience Center expanded its internationally acclaimed care with the opening of a new outpatient center in 2017. The state-of-the-art center provides a multi-disciplinary approach to care for patients with advanced neurological conditions. The new outpatient center centralizes diagnosis and treatment functions, allowing for enhanced patient care coordination. In 2017, Grady became the first hospital verified as a Level I trauma center at the national level in metro Atlanta and north Georgia. Grady's Marcus Trauma Center has been designated a Level I trauma center at the state level since 1987, and now holds the highest national trauma center recognition verified by the American College of Surgeons (ACS). Level I status verifies that in addition to providing all of the necessary services, it also has a training program and actively conducts research on trauma. Through a grant from the James M. Cox Foundation, Grady launched the Talk With Me Baby pilot program designed to improve language development in the first years of life. Grady is leveraging its many touch points with expectant and new parents to share video content with tips on building a child's vocabulary. Nurses are trained to educate caregivers on the importance of talking with a baby every day, and parents are taught about important milestones to monitor a child's language development. Staff and physicians across Grady also participate in many advocacy and awareness events such as Trauma Awareness Day at the Georgia State Capitol, Making Strides Walk with American Cancer Society, Atlanta Heart Walk with American Heart Association, World Sight Day 2017, among others.
