PART III, EXEMPT PURPOSE

Enable people affected by mental illness, particularly those in poor countries of the world, to access effective mental health services, and to live and work successfully in their own communities. All grants awarded were consistent with this purpose and fit the stated criteria and activity areas (capacity building, community mental health, sustainable livelihoods, research/policy, and collaboration).

PART III, GRANTS

The grant to the Gede Foundation in Nigeria supported the training of community members and health professionals to strengthen the effectiveness of, and supports provided by, Self Help Groups.

The Kenya farming grants supported health and social services for small holder coffee farmers and their families.
