The Chocolate MINT Foundation provides additional outreach services to the community. A Community Back to school block party provides 1000 economically disadvantaged children and youth with back pack filled with school supplies, health screening, physicals, eye exams and other resources necessary to ensure academic success. Thanksgiving Basket distribution to 1000 families during the Thanksgiving holiday remove the barrier of food insecurities during the holiday. Spreading love and joy during the Christmas season, each you we provide financial relief to low income parents, and make the holiday a little brighter for at risk children in the community through our Christmas Candyland event. Christmas Candyland provided Food, face painting, balloon animals, visits with Santa Clause and super heroes to 477 kids in the community. Kids hand selected 2385 toys in our pop up toy store. In 2017 we partnered with local churches, other non profits and local municipalities to provide relief and recovery assistance to families impacted by Hurricane Harvey in South Texas. We renovated the home of 3 families and over 6 miles of families served with basic needs and essentials to survive their current devastation.
