PART III Statement of Program Service

Demi's Animal Rescue was founded by Demi Merritt at the age of 14. We have grown to a 5 member, all volunteer board. We are a 501(c)(3) non profit, no kill animal rescue that focuses on solving pet homelessness through adoption, spay & neuter, and pet retention. We do not discriminate against any animal that is in need and open our door to all regardless of their breed, age, or special care required. All animals receive any medical care that is needed, including vaccinations, testing, microchip, and spay & neuter.

Although our work is based around taking in homeless pets and finding forever homes, we work on all sides of the issue. We do work to end Breed Specific Legislation, participate in Spay & Neuter efforts and are involved with TNR. We also help low income families feed their pets so they are able to keep them. We provide resources to families having issues with their pets to increase pet retention and involve the younger generation in pet rescue. We strive to see the day that pet homelessness is eliminated world wide.
