Veteran Services- Easter Seals TriState's veteran services serves local veterans in the areas of education, emergency and employment to ensure that veterans successfully transition from military to civilian life. Staffed by veterans, our veterans services employees understand the challenges and needs of other veterans. Emergency assistance through the Community OneSource hotline (1-513-878-2200) ensures that veterans can call to access community services such as emergency food, shelter, health services, financial assistance, and help accessing military benefits. Employment services for veterans include resume and job search assistance, interview skills, and learning how to translate military experience into terms civilian hiring managers understand. Disability Services (con't) - Easter Seals TriState assists older adults and persons with disabilities through the HomeChoice program to move from institutional services and support systems to home and community-based settings. Easter Seals TriState is part of a community-wide effort to address health disparities for individuals with disabilities. Exercise and nutrition classes, medical screenings, and educational programs encourage a healthy lifestyle for a population that has historically under-utilized community health services. Disability Services (con't) - Easter Seals TriState's Adult Day Service and Therapeutic Social Recreation programs assist senior and non-senior adults with disabilities remain in the community and enjoy their non-working day. Day services at one of our three locations include physical exercise, social interaction, mental stimulation, and an individual plan of care.
